In the instant action, as clarified by the phone interview of September 28, 2989, the Examiner objected to claims 1 through 40 only with regard to formal spelling errors. These non-substantive errors have been corrected (as well as all other spelling and typographic errors in the application known to the applicant at this time). In addition, the applicant has made substantive, but minor, changes to several of those claims in order to more clearly claim the instant invention.

The Examiner also made substantive objections to claims 41
